YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

When arranging this insurance you must tell us everything you know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding:

- whether to accept your proposal, and
- if so, on what terms.

Examples of what you must tell us include:

- anything that increases the risk of a claim
- any criminal offending or convictions
- any previous insurance claims
- any refusal by another insurer to insure you on standard terms. or continue to insure you on standard terms.

You must also tell us this every time this policy renews; and when you make any changes to it. If you fail to do this, we may avoid the policy back to when it started as if you were never insured at all.

When in doubt, disclose. We treat all information confidentially.

YOUR PRIVACY

We collect and receive your personal information in this proposal to decide whether to insure you. We hold it. You have rights to access it, and correct it under the Privacy Act 1993.

You must supply your personal information to us if it comes within your duty of disclosure (see Your Duty of Disclosure above). If you fail to do so, we may decline your proposal or avoid your insurance retrospectively.

We obtain your authority below to transfer some or all of it to other members of the insurance industry, financially interested parties noted on your policy and Insurance Claims Register Limited.

YOUR PREVIOUS HISTORY

The following questions must be answered in relation to the business, and in relation to every director and manager of the business

AVERAGE CONDITION:

The Average Condition will apply to some of the Items in this policy, if the sum insured for them is below the realistic risk you were facing.

Where this applies, the following will apply:

- If you suffer a total loss, the condition has no effect.
- If you suffer a partial loss, the maximum amount you may recover will bear the same proportion to your actual loss as the amount for which the property insured bears to the value of the property.
- Whatever your loss, in no case will you be entitled to recover more than the amount for which the property is insured.

For example:

- 1 New replacement cost $20,000.
- 2 Your sum insured $10,000.
- 3 You suffer a loss of $5,000.
- 4 If your policy is subject to Average, the maximum amount you may recover is $2,500.

YOUR DECLARATION

I declare that I:
